

INQUIRY REGARDING CLASS ACTION

A court authorized this inquiry. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Antonio Ocegueda, et al. v. Ken Nathanson et al.

Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara, Case No. 1-11- CV-202525

If you don't speak English as your first language and believe you didn't receive documents from the Defendants that were written in your main language please read this Inquiry carefully.

- Some people who received loan modification services from the Defendants listed in the Class Notice are members of the "1632 Subclass."
- The "1632 Subclass" is composed of people to whom the Defendants didn't give translated documents even though the contracts they signed were negotiated in a non-English language.
- We know who some, but not all, of the members of the 1632 Subclass are from documents in the lawsuit. We need your help to determine whether we need to add you to that list.

If you (1) signed a contract for loan modification services from one or more of the Defendants in this case and (2) negotiated the contract in Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Vietnamese, or Korean and (3) never got a copy of the contract in the language you negotiated in, you are a member of the 1632 Subclass. Please check the box below.

By checking this box, I affirm that I believe that I am a member of the 1632 Subclass.
